Throughout his 60-year career of public service at the local, state and national levels, Claude Pepper fought for the rights and welfare of the elderly and poor. He understood that health care in the home and community was indispensable to the well-being of older Americans and worked tirelessly towards improvements in these and other services until his death in 1989.

In 2024, as we mark the Twenty-ninth Annual Claude Pepper Awards, United HomeCare® cordially invites the community to celebrate the achievements of exceptional individuals among us who exemplify the spirit and ideals of the award's namesake.
